

not eligible for reimbursement under this part. You will not be reimbursed for those losses incurred through your own fault, negligence, or violation of law, or because of the actions of a third party (e.g. an airport).

(c) If you engaged in any non-aviation income-producing activities after September 11, 2001, such income must be reported under question number 5 in the appendix to this part.

(d) So called “cost savings” claims (i.e. increasing the claimed amount of reimbursement by reducing actual expenses to “adjust” for savings in expense categories asserted not to have been affected by the terrorist attacks) are not eligible for reimbursement.

(e) You cannot claim reimbursement for the lost time value of money (i.e. interest on lost profits for the period of time the funds were not available for your use).

(f) Lobbying fees and attorneys’ fees incurred to promote reimbursement for losses after the terrorist attacks or enact Section 185 of Pub. L. 109–115 are not eligible for reimbursement.

(g) Your calculation of revenues, expenses and income must be based on financial documents maintained in the ordinary course of business that were prepared for the eligible reimbursement period, such as income statements, statements of operations, profit-and-loss statements, operating forecasts, budget documents or other similar documents.

§ 331.9 What funds will the Department distribute under this part?

The Department will distribute the full amount of reimbursement it determines is payable to you under section 185 of the Act. Payment may be made in one or more installments.

§ 331.11 What are the limits on reimbursement to operators or providers?

(a) You are eligible to receive reimbursement subject to the set-aside (subpart C of this part) for eligible operators or providers at College Park Airport in College Park, Maryland; Potomac Airfield in Fort Washington, Maryland; and Washington Executive/Hyde Field in Clinton, Maryland. The amount available to you as reimbursement may be reduced to cover the cost of independent verification and auditing, as set forth in § 331.17.

(b) If you receive more reimbursement than the amount to which you are entitled under section 185 of the Act or the subpart C set-aside, the Department will notify you of the basis for the determination and the amount that you must repay to the Department. The Department will follow collection procedures under the Federal Claims Collection Act of 1966 (31 U.S.C. 3701 et seq.) to the extent required by law, in recovering such overpayments.

(c) Payment will not be made to you until you have agreed to release the United States Government for all claims for financial losses resulting from the closure of the five airports in the Washington, DC area. The Department will provide a release form to applicants that must be completed before any payment is made under Section 185 of the Act.

§ 331.13 What is the eligible reimbursement period under this part?

The eligible reimbursement period for direct and incremental losses differs by airport:

(a) For Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport the eligibility period for reimbursement is from September 11, 2001 until October 18, 2005.

(b) For College Park Airport in College Park, Maryland, the eligibility period for reimbursement is from September 11, 2001 until February 13, 2005.

(c) For Potomac Airfield in Fort Washington, Maryland, the eligibility period for reimbursement is from September 11, 2001 until February 13, 2005.

(d) For the Washington South Capitol Street Heliport in Washington, DC, the eligibility period for reimbursement is from September 11, 2001 to November 30, 2005.

(e) For Washington Executive/Hyde Field in Clinton, Maryland, there are two eligibility periods for reimbursement. The first period is from September 11, 2001 until May 16, 2002. The second period is from September 29, 2002 until February 13, 2005.
